Notes:

- Staff Members who are relatives/parents of boys who are trainees at RTA are not expected to have contact with their child during RTA as contact may undermine the discipline factor involved in training or give the appearance of favoritism. Boys are here to develop per the four gold points and mothering, badgering, or the pressures of parental expectations are not expected at this academy. If contact is needed it will be upon the approval of the Academy Director.
- Arrival is preferred Friday night for those involved with training that commences Saturday. Others should arrive by Saturday morning to begin preparation of their campsites and facilities. Subject Matter Experts should be prepared to present their classes for review over the weekend. Problems in meeting the schedule or date restrictions need to be addressed to the District Training Coordinator as soon as possible.
- The required Medical Release Form can be found in the Navigator program or www.ncroyalrangers.ws.
